

Master Course
HIGO Program Basic Course
Application Information for International Students
Enrolled in April or October 2014

The applicants must take TOEFL, TOEIC or IELTS.

Graduate School of Medical Sciences
Kumamoto University

The Student Affairs Section, School of Medicine, Kumamoto University
1-1-1 Honjo, Chuo-ku, Kumamoto 860-8556, Japan
TEL: +81-96-373-5025 FAX: +81-96-373-5030
E-mail: iyg-igaku@jimu.kumamoto-u.ac.jp

The Graduate School of Medical Sciences, Kumamoto University recruits international students who wish to enroll in the Master Course of the HIGO Program Basic Course. The English language is used for all classes and research instructions in this program.

Number of Students Accepted for Admission

few students

Qualifications of Applicants

1) Educational Background:

Applicants should be persons without Japanese nationality who meet any of the following educational background from ① to ④.

- ① Applicants who have completed, or are due to complete in March 2014 to be eligible to enroll in April 2014 ,or in September 2014 to be eligible to enroll in October 2014. 16 years of school education abroad.
- ② Applicants who have completed, or are due to complete in March 2014 to be eligible to enroll in April 2014 ,or in September 2014 to be eligible to enroll in October 2014. 16 years of school education in a foreign country by means of finishing a correspondence study of the said country in Japan.
- ③ Applicants who have completed 15 years of school education abroad or applicants who have completed 15 years of school education in a foreign country by means of finishing a correspondence study of the said country in Japan. He/She should be regarded as having acquired the credits designated by Kumamoto University with excellent results.
- ④ Applicants who have been regarded as having a level of academic ability equivalent or superior to that of a university graduate by this Graduate School and reached the age of 22 years by March 2014 to be eligible to enroll in April 2014, or by September 2014 to be eligible to enroll in October 2014.

Persons who intend to apply under categories ③ and ④ must undergo a preliminary qualification screening prior to formal registration. Their prospective supervisors must contact the school affairs section, Graduate School of Medical Sciences by December 13.

2) Health:

Applicants must be in a good physical and mental health.

3) Language:

Applicants must have earned the minimum required score in any one of the following:

- ①TOEFL-iBT(50 or higher) ②TOEFL-PBT(463 or higher) ③TOEIC(480 or higher)
- ④IELTS(4.5 or higher)

4)Visa:

Applicants must have a student visa when coming to Japan

Period of Study

Two (2) years from April 2014 to March 2016, or October 2014 to September 2016

*Successful applicants are needed to continue on to Doctoral Course (HIGO Advanced Course)
(for 4 years)

Scholarship Benefits

Successful applicants are eligible to receive a stipend while in school (140,000 JPY per month for the 2013 academic year).

Note that the amount of scholarship is subject to change each academic year.

Also note that the qualifications for this privilege may be reassessed during mid-term evaluations.

Screening Procedure

- 1) Applicants must choose one of the research leaders in the Graduate School of Medical Sciences, Kumamoto University as his/her prospective supervisor, and must obtain permission to apply for this program from the supervisor beforehand.
- 2) Applicants must obtain all application information and forms through Internet by themselves. After filling in all the forms, they must send them to their prospective supervisor of the Graduate School of Medical Sciences.
- 3) Their prospective supervisors must submit all application forms to the committee for this program before the deadline for application.
- 4) The committee will have examinations for those who apply to the program. The main parts of the examination are the English test (TOEFL, TOEIC, IELTS), essay and interviews.
- 5) Interviews by three committee members will be held over Internet. For details of the internet-based interview, please refer to “Instruction for internet-based interview of Graduate School of Medical Sciences, Kumamoto University” The essay exam will also be held over Internet. As an alternative, if the foreign applicants are visiting Japan on the day of the entrance examination (February 4, 2014) , they will be able to take the essay exam and have interviews with three committee members in Kumamoto University.
- 6) The total of scores of the English test, essay and interviews with three committee members will be used to score the examination.

Date of Enrollment

April 1, 2014 or October 1, 2014

(Those who wish to enroll on April 1 must complete the admission procedures by March 27 following the examination results to be announced on March 3.)

Degrees

After successful fulfillment of the HIGO Program Basic Course, a Master of Health Life Science degree will be conferred.

Application Period

From 20 December 2013 through 26 December 2013.

The research leaders, or prospective supervisors, of the international students should collect and submit all documents required for application to the Student Affairs Section, School of Medicine.

Examination Date

Tuesday, February 4, 2014

Required Documents

【Applicants must submit the following documents.】

- 1) Application form for HIGO Program (Form 1)
- 2) Photo Identity Slip, Admission Card, Address Label (Form 2)
- 3) One photograph (Paste a 4×3cm photograph taken no more than three months prior to application, upper frontal view without a hat, with upper body showing)
- 4) A certificate of graduation (completion) or prospective graduation (completion) from the university attended
- 5) Academic record issued by the university attended
- 6) Written Statement of Reasons for Application (Form 3)
- 7) Examination fee (30,000 JPY)
- 8) A copy of the applicant's score of English examination that you took within 2 years from the day of the entrance examination (Either of the following: TOEFLibt (Score should be 50 or higher), TOEFLpbt (463 or higher), IELTS (4.5 or higher) or TOEIC (480 or higher))
- 9) A letter from the applicant's employer indicating agreement with this application, if the applicant is an employee.

Additional Statements:

- 1) Applicants are urged to discuss a research plan with their prospective supervisors of the Graduate School of Medical Sciences, Kumamoto University beforehand.
- 2) All documents should be typewritten on A4 size paper.
- 3) Applications with incomplete information, or those submitted after the deadline, will not be accepted.
- 4) No application materials will be returned to the applicants.

Announcement of Results

Monday, March 3 2014

Admission Procedure

◎The details of admission procedures will be described in the letter of acceptance.

1) When and How to Pursue Admission Procedures

The details will be described in the letter of acceptance.

*The prospective instructors for the students who wish to enroll in April should familiarize themselves with admission procedures (including deadlines) beforehand, and make sure that the students can complete the procedures before enrollment.

2) Important Point Regarding Admission Procedures

If a successful applicant does not complete the admission procedures before the deadline, he/she will be considered to have declined enrollment.

3) Fee to Pay at the Time of Admission Procedures

Admission fee (scheduled amount) 282,000 JPY

4) Main Documents Required for Admission Procedures

① Pledge ②Letter of Guarantee ③Color photo of face (4cm length x 3cm width)

◎Tuition fee

Tuition for the second semester 267,900 JPY (535,800 JPY annually)

Attentions

- 1) Students will not be allowed to continue studying at Kumamoto University if any of the following occur:
 1. There are false statements in the application.
 2. Student is expelled or dismissed from the university as a disciplinary measure, or determined to be unlikely to complete academic requirements.
 3. Student leaves the university or transfers to another university.
 4. The status of the student visa is changed to another type of visa.
- 2) Applicants are advised to become familiar with Japanese culture, customs, climate, and the university system before coming to Japan. Japanese language skills for daily life would also be advantageous.

Inquiries

The Student Affairs Section, School of Medicine,

Kumamoto University

1-1-1 Honjo, Chuo-ku, Kumamoto 860-8556, Japan

TEL: +81-96-373-5025 FAX: +81-96-373-5030

E-mail: iyg-igaku@jimu.kumamoto-u.ac.jp